The two motions found after the forecast was frozen

Blue/orange mark inversion-related halves. The sampled paths illustrate independently checked cycles at their own parameters.
The complete return sequence is primitive; the overlapping orbit outlines alone conceal the difference.