Layer width and changes of diode itinerary

The grazing curve crosses the interior of a stability band; it does not mark the birth of a new family.

Boundaries are corrected periodic roots. At 32 additional cell centres, finer interpolation has a median 2.97-fold error reduction.
The largest remaining interpolation error is 20.4% of the local width; use corrected roots for narrow-window searches.