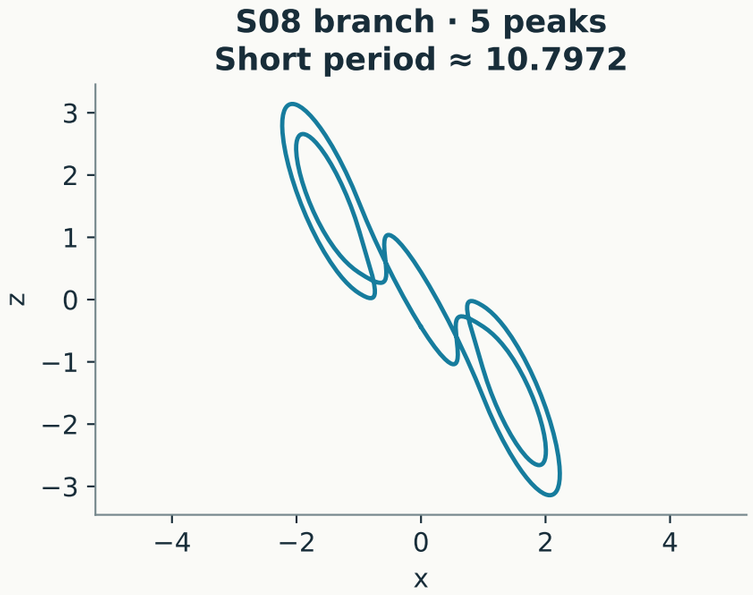
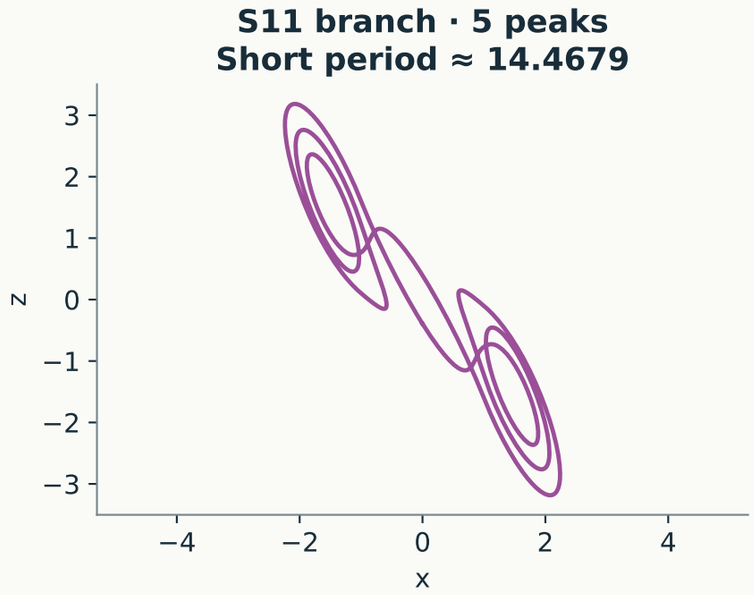
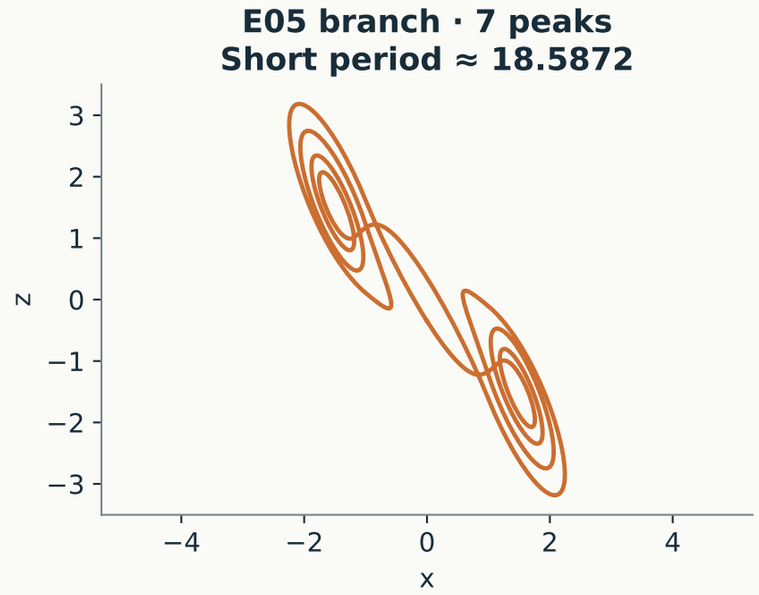
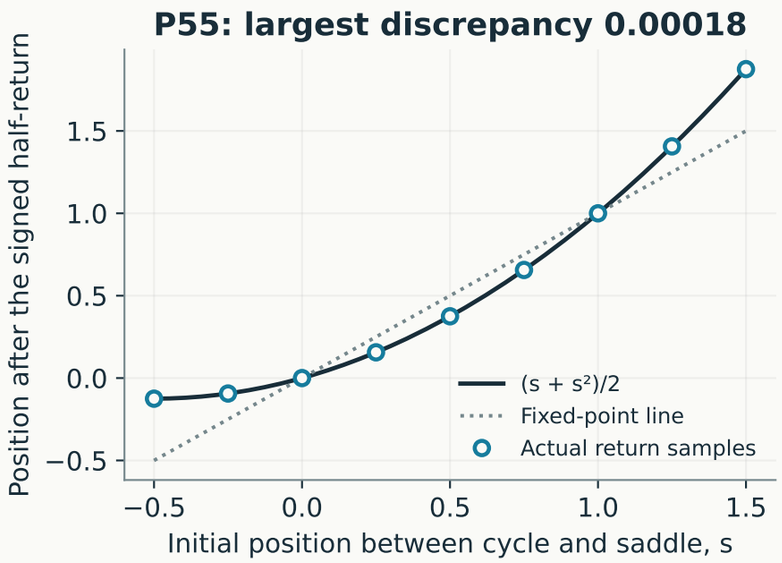
Different short cycles, similar local return geometry

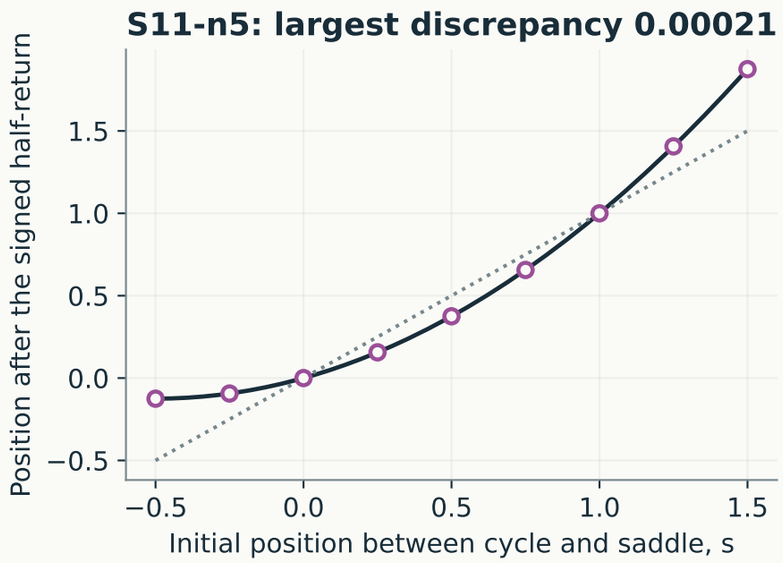
Top: actual short saddle cycles at the long-cycle parameters. Bottom: independently evaluated long-cycle returns.

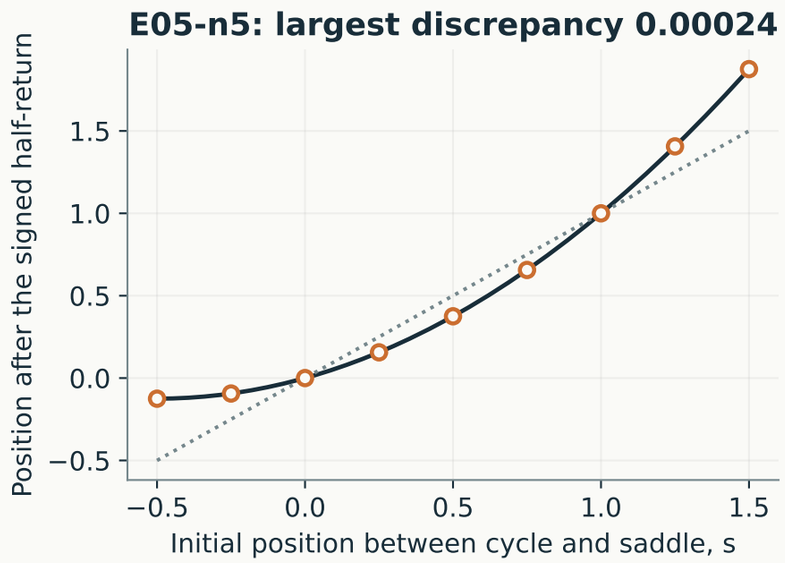












s = 0: attracting cycle; s = 1: companion saddle at exactly the same parameters.
Nine secant samples per cycle; numerical agreement does not establish a global one-dimensional reduction.