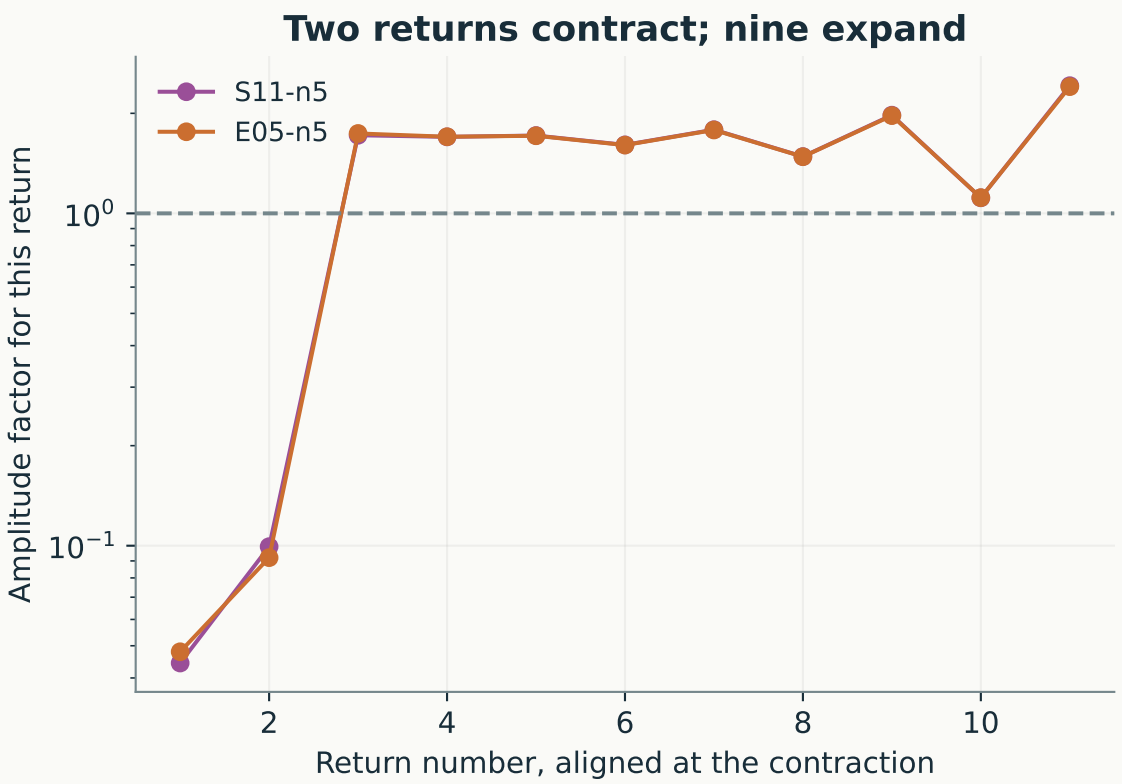
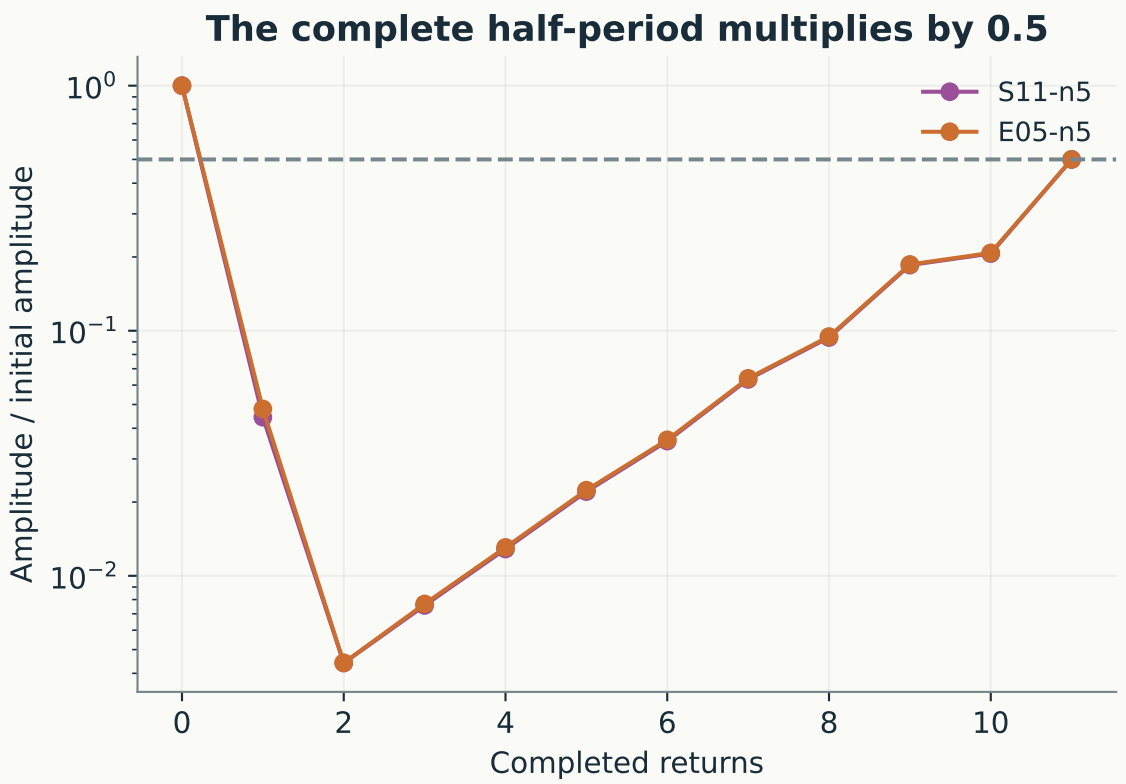
Where a long attracting motion contracts

Follow one fixed perturbation direction through consecutive section returns during a symmetric half-period.





Dominant Floquet direction; Euclidean norm in section coordinates (y, z); cyclic phase alignment.
The number of contracting steps depends on the section; it is not a universal count of physical events.