Contact curves in the original three-dimensional coordinates

Purple: edges of simultaneous symmetric stability. Gold: edges including asymmetric primary branches.

The plotted lines are solved simultaneous events on two distinct cycles. Translucent ruled ribbons only connect those lines visually.
F = fold; S = symmetry loss; D = first period doubling of an asymmetric cycle. The ribbons are not measured stability volumes.