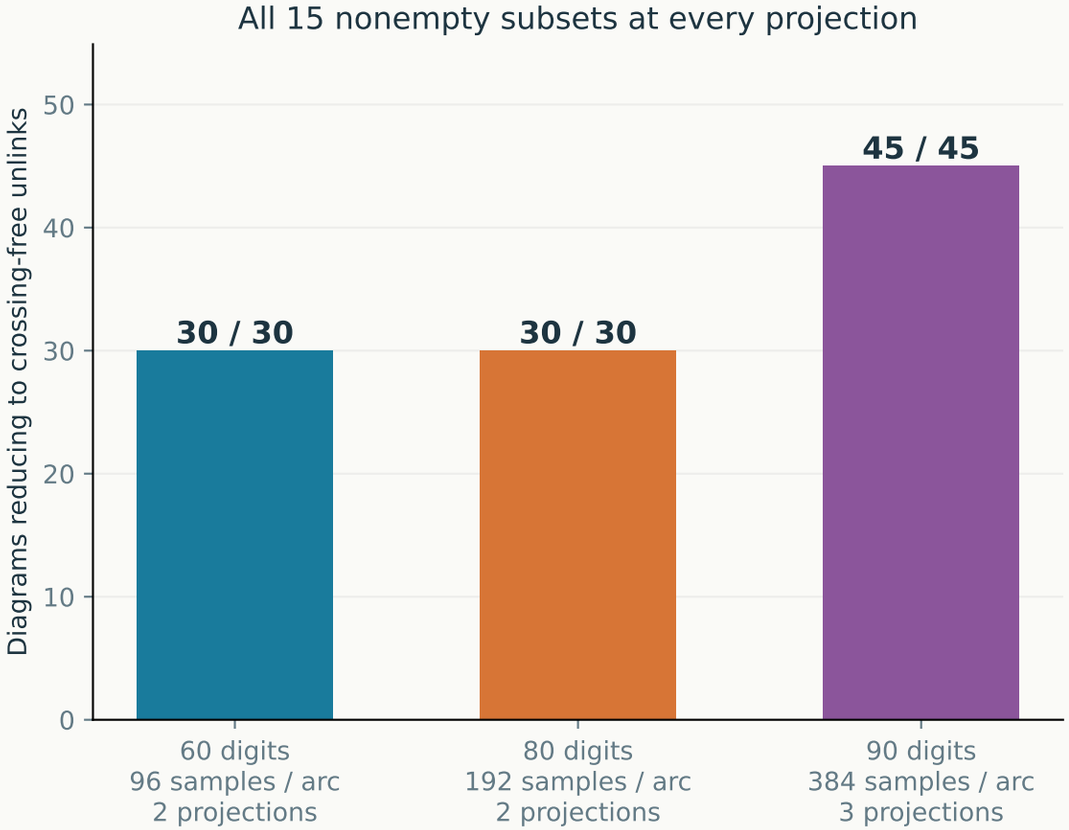
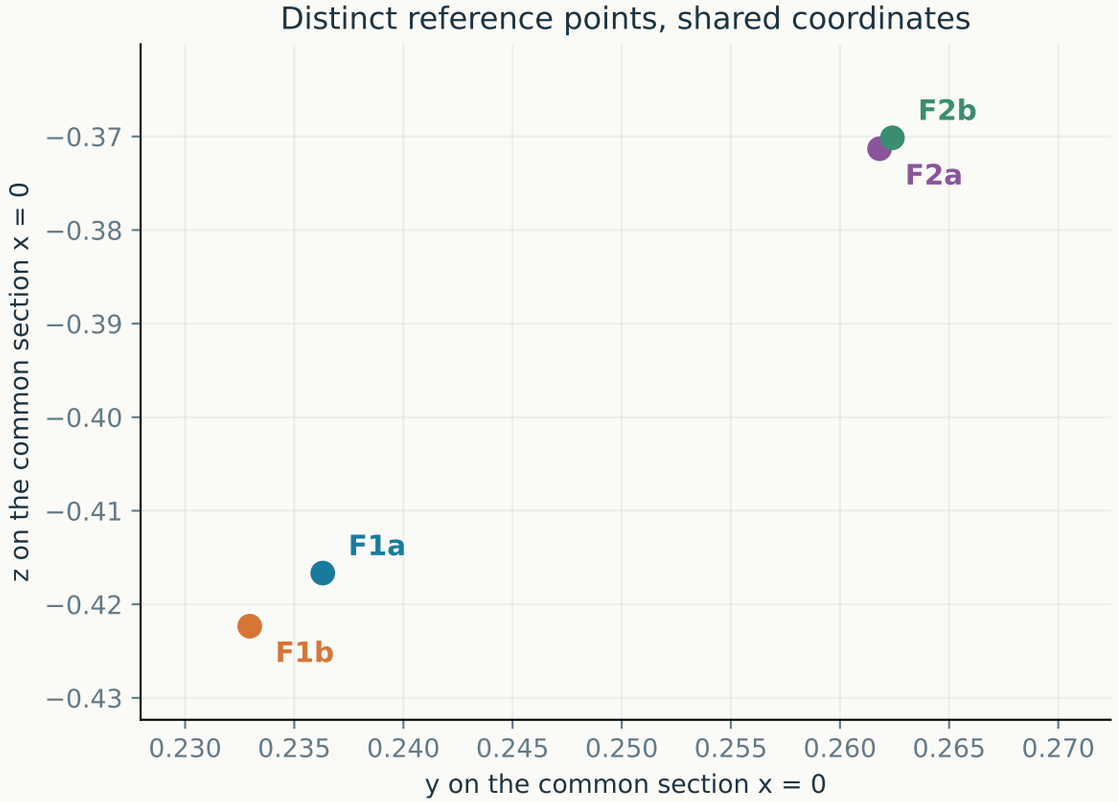
The negative result survives independent numerical checks

Unlink classifications use diagram reductions; a zero linking number alone would not be sufficient.





Independent solid-angle Gauss integrals: all six pairs agree with zero; maximum absolute residual 4.2e-13.

Left: repeats across precision, polygon resolution and camera direction. Right: one chosen starting point per orbit.
These checks support the numerical classification; they do not provide a certified separation tube around every ODE orbit.