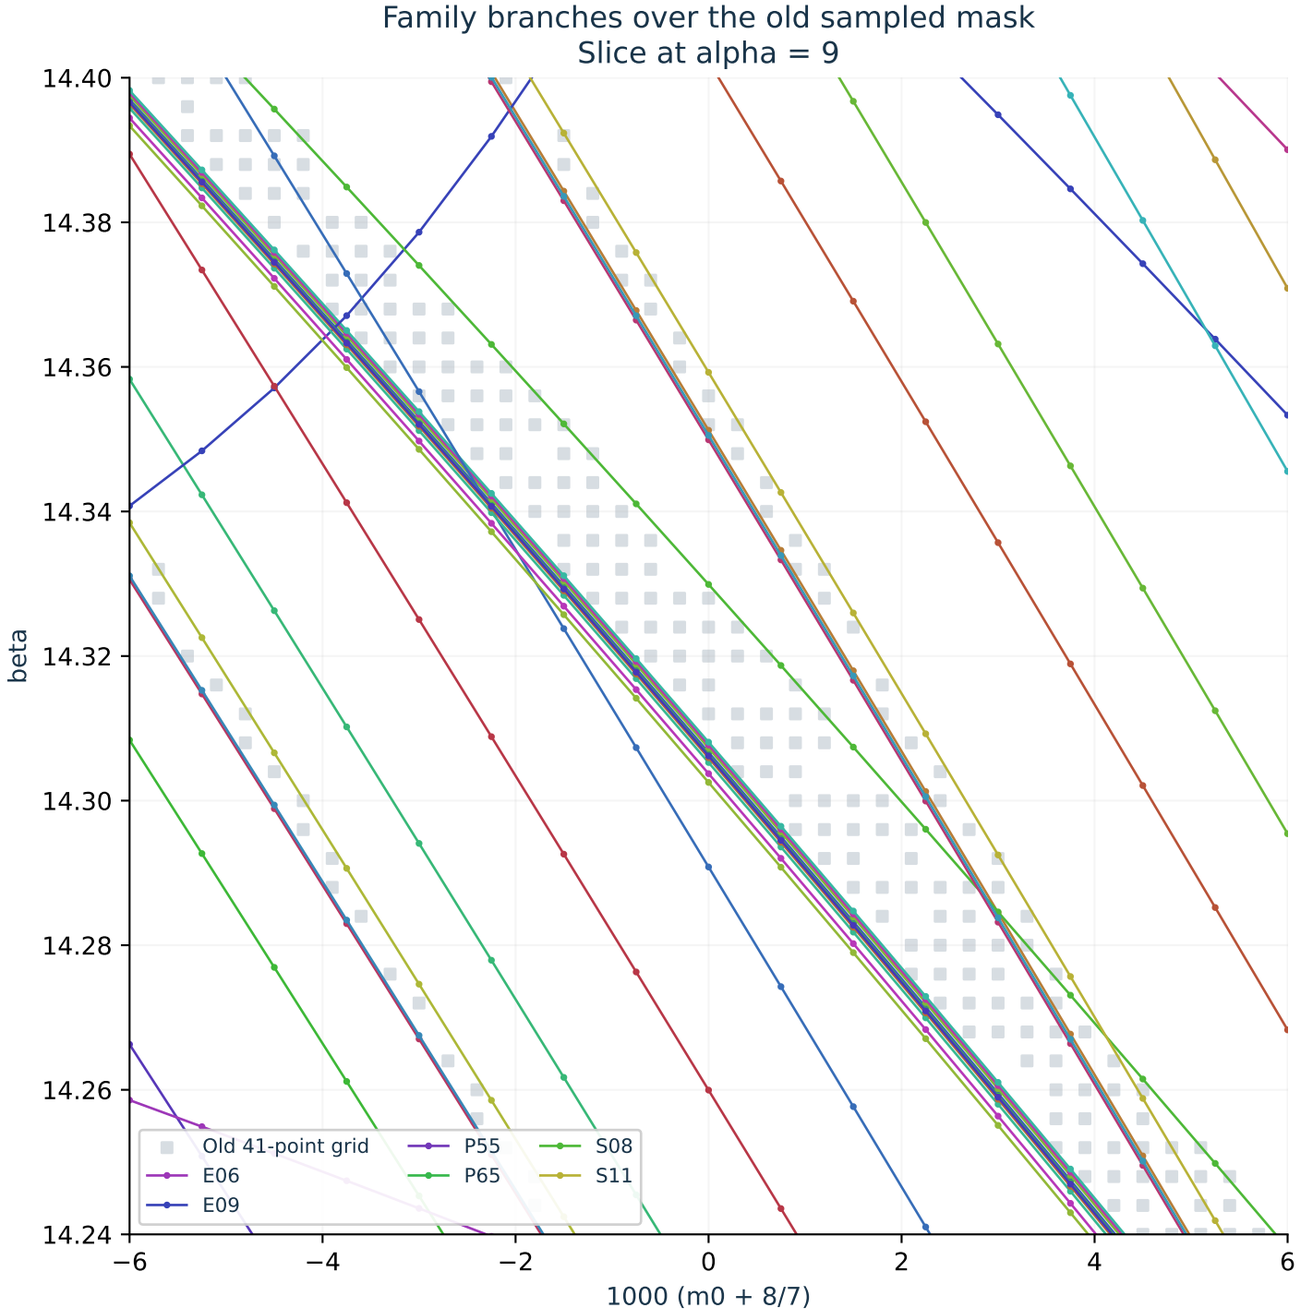
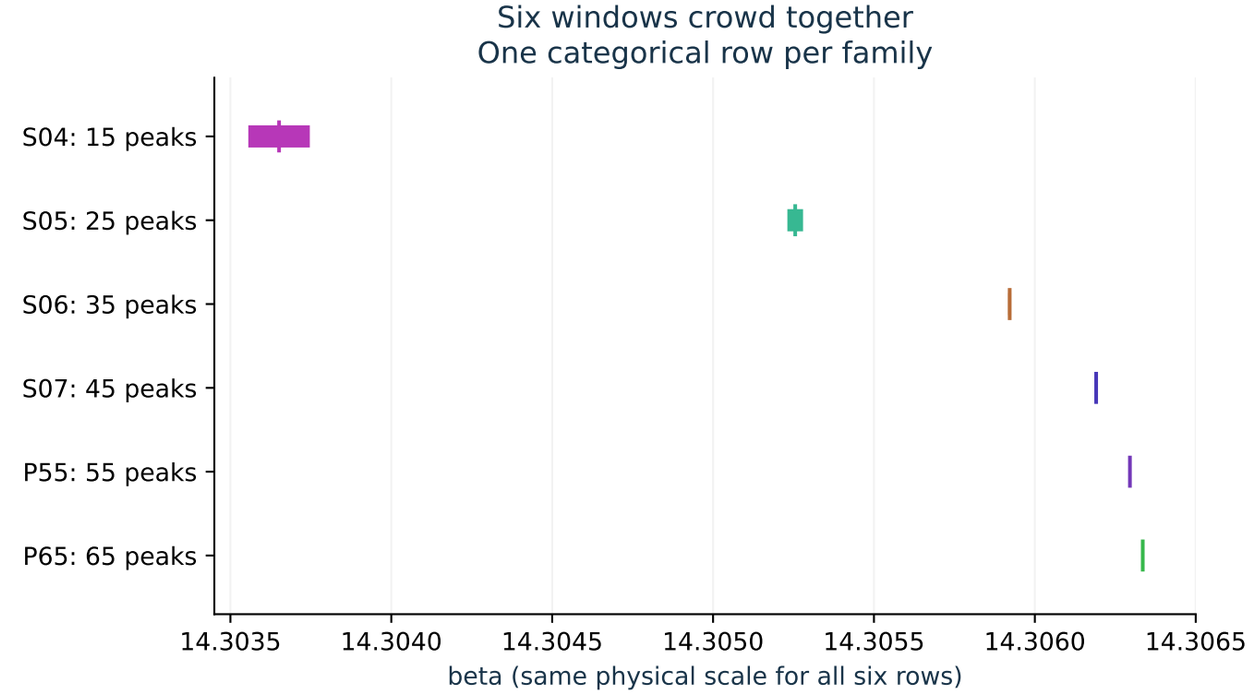
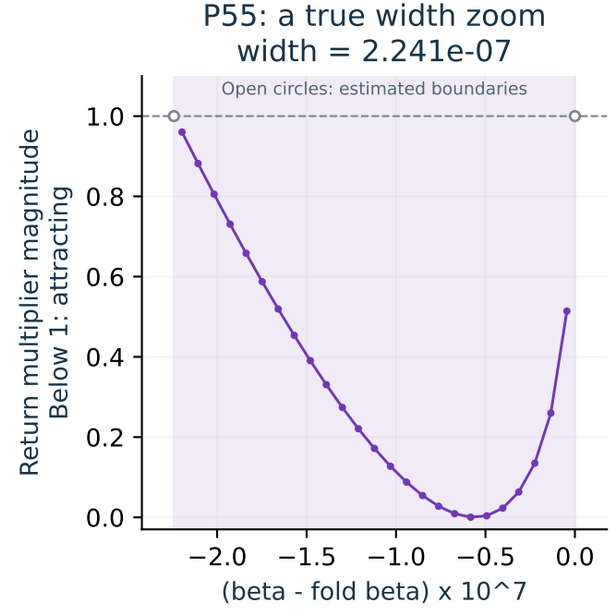
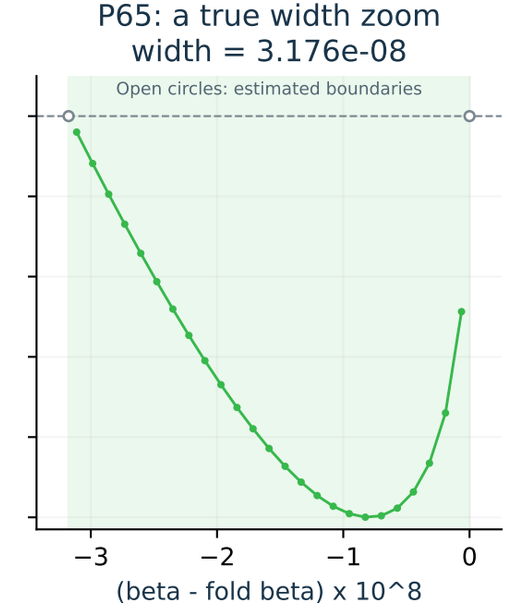
More points reveal the branches; magnification reveals their width









5,447 closed surface samples, including 3,975 new parameter locations. The width zooms contain 25 and 25 newly closed cycles.
The old beta spacing was 0.004: about 126,000 times the P65 symmetric-core width. Connecting lines are visual guides.